

CUMBERLAND GOES TO WAR

Kids on the Homefront

Offered Nov. 8-11. Take your students back to a different time, before computers, cell phones and X-Boxes. Students will learn what it was like to be a child during World War II – what they did for fun, what they did for the war effort and how their lives were affected. Activities include: separating milkweed, making Victory banners, designing posters, sampling ration cakes, making airplanes and creating V-mail. Plan your history lesson around this special field trip. Call for more information – 301-777-8678 or email info@gordon-robertshouse.com. $2.00 per child.

Activities stations include:

- Separating milkweed
- Making Victory banners
- Designing posters
- Sampling ration cakes
- Making airplanes
- Creating V-mail

4th and 5th graders – Faces of WWII – Nov. 1-4

Students will discover how code breakers, spies, war dogs, Tuskegee Airmen and women contributed to the armed forces. Hands on activities will allow students to explore the roles of each segment.

7th and 8th graders – Operation Footlocker

Hands-on exploration of WWII artifacts. Students will explore primary source documents and artifacts to learn about WWII. Available for classroom or museum site. No charge.

Queen City Transportation Museum
Allegany County Historical Society
210 South Centre Street • Cumberland, MD 21502
301-777-8678 • www.queencitytransportationmuseum.com

Cumberland Goes To War is made possible by the support of the Allegany County Department of Tourism, the Canal Place Development and Preservation Commission, Maryland Heritage Area Programs, Western Maryland Scenic Railroad, the City of Cumberland, the Potomac Highlands Airport Authority, the men and women who preserve the history of the 29th Infantry Division and many generous residents of Allegany County who have shared their memories and family treasures from World War II.

www.cumberlandgoestowar.com • 301-724-2453